Tersely Told Town Tales

J. E. Chambers of north of town was in Mansfield the first of the week.

Fred Johnson, assistant cashier of the Wright County Bank, was in Mansfield Sunday.

W. N. Crawford of Findley township in Douglas County, was in Mansfield the first of the week doing some trading.

Thos. Rosevear, of Mansfield, R. 2 made the Mirror office a pleasant call last Saturday, and renewed his subscription for a year.

R. C. Hall, who operates canning factories at Mansfield, Bryant, Mt. Zion and Ava, was in the city the first of the week looking after business.

Carl Garner, Roy Chaffin, Evan McMahan Everett Cardwell and Luther Fly of Seymour, attended the meeting of the Royal Arch Chapter in Mansfield last Saturday night.

H. E. Nichols, Ben Grover and Raymond Baker have returned to Mansfield after an absence of some time working in the cities and the metropolitan centers of the United States.

V. R. Able, Elbert Brazeal and Joe Skidmore, of near Squires, were in Mansfield the latter part of last week. They came up to see D. H. Snyder and others, and get the data and information necessary to organize a farm club at Squires.

Walter C. Schafer of Mansfield, Route 2, was in the Mirror office Saturday for a short call. Mr. Schafer is a new comer to this country and is getting into the pure-bred cattle business. He is carrying the Holstein stock.

C. V. Ashworth of just north of Mansfield, made the Mirror office a very pleasant call last Saturday night. Mr. Ashworth is very proud of the pure-bred stock he is carrying on his little farm. He has Shorthorn cattle, Southdown sheep and White Leghorn chickens.

Jas. E. Miller of Muskogee, Okla. died at his home in that city Jan. 11th and was buried there the 14th. Mr. Miller was reared and spent his early manhood at Ava, in Douglas county, and had many friends and acquaintances all over this county.

Mr. M. Walker of Ava has leased the photograph gallery in Mansfield and will take charge Jan. 17. He is planning to be in Mansfield, Monday Tuesday and Wednesday of each week, and in Ava Thursday, Friday and Saturday. See "ad" in this week's Mirror.

The City Council in session last Monday night, passed a resolution, recommending to the County Court the re-appointment of Joe H. Dennis, as a member of the Mansfield Special road district. We do not doubt that the appointment will be made by the Court.

If you have, or know of an item of news, visitors or corresponders, don't fail to tell us, or call us over the phone. We will appreciate it, and it will help make the Mirror the best and newest paper in this part of the state. About the only way we have of learning of your visitors and the comers and goers, is that somebody tell us about it. We will appreciate it and will be glad to get it.

Two suspect yeggmen were picked up last Saturday night by City Marshal Rowe Strong, and were lodged in the Mansfield lock-up. They were searched for explosives and burglar tools and were released the next morning. A railroad man was also searched, but nothing was found. Marshal Strong is keeping a close watch-out for all suspects and suspicious looking characters, and is using every effort to keep down crime in our little city.

Dan Strong, a cousin of City Marshal Rowe Strong, arrived in Mansfield last week, and will spend about three months visiting here and in the neighborhood hereabout. Mr. Strong has been in the U. S. Navy for a number of years, served overseas in the World War, and gained a wide reputation in the service for his marksmanship and good soldiering. He is out on a three months leave of absence, at the expiration of which time he expects to re-enlist.

J. A. Hall of Seymour was in Mansfield the first of the week.

Sheriff E. C. Hake, made the appointment last Monday, at Hartsville, of Sam Hensley, deputy for this part of the county, and Mr. Hensley was sworn in as such deputy sheriff. Mr. Hensley has served as special police and marshal in Mansfield, a number of times, and his appointment as deputy sheriff will be generally approved by the citizenship of Mansfield. He is well liked and stands high with the people.

From general observation, it seems that the thing Mansfield needs most is a few pieces of rental property. The population of Mansfield would increase materially if people could get houses to live in. This is a tip to parties who might be interested in a Building and Loan Association. It seems something of this kind could be made a good business, and a great boon to the city of Mansfield. We are surrounded by a good country to draw on for this kind of a business; and it would give Mansfield more houses for more people to live in.

A Surprise.

Geo. Shores Sr. was given a very delightful surprise Sunday in honor of his 56th birthday anniversary. All of his children and grandchildren and several others were there. When they began arriving, somewhere near the noon hour with baskets and bundles, the victim of the surprise admitted that there were many more than he ever expected to come to a birthday celebration of his. The long tables may not have groined with the load of choice specimens of cookery, but there were groans heard in the big kitchen. The afternoon was spent very pleasantly and all departed with best wishes for many happy returns of the day. Those present were: Geo. Shores Sr. and wife, John Shores, wife and four children, Wm. Shores, wife and two children, Chas. Shores and wife, Geo. Shores Jr. wife and daughter, Howard and Miss Myrtle Shores, Garret Cunningham and wife, Harry Thomas and wife, Wm. Woods, wife and two children, Bill Fletcher, Tom Pope, Chas. Chadwell, wife and two children, Paul Willis and Noah Davidson.

Howell—Hensley.

Last Sunday at 2 p. m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Hensley occurred the marriage ceremony which united in Holy bonds of matrimony, Mr. Robert L. Howell and Miss Ida E. Hensley. The ceremony was performed by Rev. L. A. Johnson of this city, in the presence of the bride's home people. Mr. Howell was formerly a resident of Springfield, Mo., but is now a successful business man in Eureka, Calif. Miss Hensley is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Hensley of Mansfield, Mo. and is well and favorably known by a large host of friends who join in wishing them a long and happy married life. They left over the Frisco on Sunday eve for their home in Eureka, Calif.

For a Persistent Cough. Some years ago H. P. Schaefer, a student at law in Greenville, S. C. had been troubled for a long while with a persistent cough which he says, "I really alarmed me, causing me to fear that I was in the first stage of consumption." Having seen Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised he concluded to try it. "I soon felt a remarkable change and after using two bottles of the small size was permanently cured."
